

VENUES FOR DINNER

Moroccan dinner at Riad Dar Rhizlane

Entering Dar Rhizlane is like decorating silken rose petals with a palette full of pleasure, obvious refinement, elegance and enchanting glory of the surroundings. It is to tease and feast your senses all at once with a farandole of dishes boasting an exemplary mixture of ingredients. Dishes such as Vanilla carrots, crystallized tomatoes, aubergine caviar, and hazel nut of lamb accompanied by a date ratatouille are going to send your taste buds on a majestic gastronomic trip. Zakia, our Head Chef initiated her journey in the midst of savours at a tender age surrounded by the soft odours in the kitchen of her mother and her grandmother, large cooks at the La Mamounia. As a queen of the palate, she furrows each day the meanders of the taste and associates them to extract subtle yet tempting platters. Her Moroccan traditional recipes are revisited and refined to let out a stream of smoothness and unbeatable savours. Like a passionate artist she plays with her spices and methods of presentation and dissects the dishes of her childhood to remove superfluity and insufflates essences into them.
